2nd AGRA Conference 2019

Bloomin' Ancestors!
— *giving your family
history personality*

AGRA's second conference will be held in Pembroke College, Oxford University. It will commence with a formal dinner in the College Hall on the evening of 27th September. The lectures, featuring an exciting programme of expert speakers, will be held in the state-of-the-art Pichette Auditorium on Saturday 28th.

It will be possible to come to the dinner and stay overnight or just attend on Saturday. Further details including registration costs will be announced later in the year.

See the AGRA website for up-to-date news and to register your interest.
